

Morphological Characteristics for Beets Detroit Dark Red

Description: The shape of this variety is round with a small shoulder. It has a fine tap root. The tops average between 12-14 inches, and are dark green turning blood red. Coloration is a deep dark red. This beet is very tender, with almost no zoning.

Maturity: 55-58 days

Comments Detroit Dark Red is excellent for canning, and is very widely adapted.

