

Spinach Hybrid No. 7

Description: The plant has an upright posture and is high yielding. Leaves are semi-savoyed and dark green.

Maturity: Approximately 42-44 days

Comments: It is suitable for fresh market, and processing. It is recommended for fall crops. This variety is fast bolting when spring planted and is machine harvestable for quick freezing and canning.

